WEDNES AT EVENING, JANUARY 2.

TIDAL WAVES STRIKE A STRAMER -Tho British steamship Archoria Capt. Brown, from Glasgow, arrived at New York yesterday. She had strong westerly gales, with low barometer and very heavy cross sees. December 24, at 1 a. m , during a strong westerly gale and high sea, a series of terrific waves came sweeping down from the north and across the regular sea, the heaviest one striking the vessel on the bluff of the bow, causing her to keel heavily, and as the blow was accompanied with a crashing sound, as if several heavy cannons had been fired off simultaneously fore and aft and above and below, the shock game the impression that the vessel had run into a stone-quay; the passengers in the fore and middle part of the vessel were thrown topsy turvy, but soon managed to scramble to the entrances to the deck, where they remained peering out through the spray into the dark-uess and trembling with fear until reassured by the officers that the vessel was sound and that there was no danger. The series of about six waves seemed to be of the so-call ed tidal wave kind, and were probably origi-nated by some local submarine influence. On close examination no damage was found to

1889 ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE. 1889

The GAZETTE, chronologically, is in the NIRETIETH year of its existence and is new only the oldest paper in the State, but, wit very few exceptions, in the country. No withstanding the fullness of its years, it has kept, and will continue to keep abreast of the times in all that pertains to a news paper. furnishing its readers daily with a perfect mirror of passing events, domestic and foreign. Its facilities for obtaining news as they increase are taken advantage of and used for the benefit of its readers, who are thus kept thoroughly posted as to all that is of interest politically, socially, financially and commercially. Special attention is given to matters concerning the State and its welfare, while its local columns contain all that is of the slightest interest to Alexandria. Its regular correspondence from Washington and Richmond are features of peculiar interest, as attested by the eagerness with which they are read and copied by other papers, while its editorial depart, ment, conducted with reference to the best interests of the city, State and country, will continue to advocate what is believed to be right, just, honest and patriotic. With a view to the interests of merchants, farm. ers, and all interested, its commercial columns are carefully edited and its market reports are acknowledged by all to be faith. ful and accurate. Through all this section of the State and in all parts of the country where Virginians have located, there will the GAZETTE generally be found, and thus as an advertising medium it has few equals outside the large cities. In the household, counting room and workshop, it is an ever welcome visitor, acceptable alike to old and young, the grave and the gay.

THE FORUM.

The Forum is a monthly review, every number of which contains eleven original essays on the most important serious topics of the time, by the best writers of both hemisheres—its contributors during the last two years included more than 200 writers. (A list of them will be sent to any address on application.) Among them are: Archdeacon F. W. Farrar, President Julius H. Seelye, Professor John Tyndall, Justice T. M. Cooley, Professor Emile de Laveleye, President Francis L. Patton, Andrew D. White, Edward Atkinson, Senator George F. Edimunds, Major J. W. Powell, President Francis A. Walker, W. H. Mailock, President Timothy Dwight, W. S. Lilly, Professor Frederic H. Hedge, Charles Dudley Warner, Bishop F. D. Huntington, Geo. W. Cable.

The range of subjects includes every important field of activity and investigation—politics, domestic and foreign; accial sciences illterary criticism; colucation; science and religion (always within the limits of reverential thought). The subjects are timely and they are treated by authorities.

The Forum gives equal prominence to each side.

thorities.

The Forum gives equal prominence to each side of every debatable subject. It is not influenced by any party or school or sect. Its owners are a company of scholars whose aim is to further and to present the latest investigations and the sound department of thought.

More editorial discussions in the press are suggested by the Forum than by any other periodical. The New York Heroldsays of it; "The Forum has done more to bring the thinking men of the country into connection with current literature than any other publication." And the Boston Herald: "The Forum has taken the foremost place in public discussions because it has dealt with important subjects honestly, impartially, and at the hands of those who know semething about them." 50 cents a number; $5 a year. A sample copy of the Forum will be sent free to any one who will send us the name of a library or reading room where it is not now taken, or who will send us the names and addresses of six oducated persons who read thoughtful literature dec27

The Sun

1889 And for the Democracy.

THE SUN believes that the campaign for the election of a democratic Congress in 1890 and a democratic President in 1892 should begin on or about the fourth of next March. The Sun will be on hand at the beginning and until the end of the most interesting and important political con-flict since the war, doing its honest atmost, as over, to secure the triumph of the democratic par-ty and the permanent supremacy of the princi-ples held by Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden.

The great feet of the year is the rainy to he The great fact of the year is the return to absolute power of the common enemy of all good democrats—the political organization for whose oyerthrow THE SUN fought at the front for fifteen years, the memorable years of Grant and the Fraud Hayes, and Garfield and Arthur.

It is the same old enemy, that democrats now

It is the same old enemy that democrats now confront, and he will be intrenched in the same strong position. It has been carried once by brave and hopeful fighting. Do you not believe with THE SUN that the thing can be done again?

Wait and see!

The hope of the democracy is in the loyal effects of a united press, cherishing no memories of past differences in non-essentials, forgetting everything but the lessons of experience, and that victhing but the legions of experience, and that victory is a duty.

Probably you know The Sun already as a newspaper which gets all the news and prints it in incomparably interesting shape; which chronicles facts as they occur and tells the truth about men and events with absolute fearlessness, making the completest and most entertaining journal publish-ed anywhere on earth; and which sells its opin-ions only to its subscribers and purchasers at two cents a copy—on Sundays four cents. If you do not know THE SUN, send for it and learn what a wonderful thing it is to be in the sunshine.
